

Congratulations to all of our Endorsed Candidates on their Victories! On to November!

For Your Endorsed Democratic Candidates and Issue 26

Chris Callender

State Senate District 18

Chris Callender is a career public servant and educator. He will work to build an educated workforce, bring jobs and protect healthcare right for all Ohioans.

Chris Glassburn

State Representative District 15

Glassburn's 20 years of proven results on North Olmsted City Council, School Board, as a small business owner, and on staff at the Ohio House of Representatives shows he will deliver results for us in Columbus.

Write-In Terrence Upchurch

State Representative District 20

Upchurch has been a fierce advocate for northeastern Ohio. He will continue to fight for our communities and be our voice at the statehouse.

Pernel Jones, Jr.

County Council District 8

County Councilman Jones provides proven leadership for a stronger community. He has dedicated his term to enhancing District 8 and ensuring a brighter future for all.

Sue Durichko

State Senate District 24

Sue Durichko has lived her life in service to others as a mother, a nurse and a public servant and will bring that same spirit of advocacy, wisdom and devotion to the State Senate and to serve the people of District 24.

Juanita O. Brent

State Representative District 18

Brent secured over a billion dollars for the House district and authored House bills to improve quality of life. Brent will communicate with weekly statehouse updates, townhalls, office hours, etc.

Mark C. Casselberry

County Council District 4

As a 12-year member of Parma City Council, Casselberry's legislative experience, leadership and voting record matters.

YOUR CONTESTED DEMOCRATIC JUDICIAL CANDIDATES

Lisa Forbes

Ohio Supreme Court

Judge Forbes is running for the Ohio Supreme Court to ensure that the high court serves as an effective firewall to protect our democracy. She has extensive experience in the courts of appeals and trial courts across Ohio handling intricate cases that gives her the foundation to interpret and apply the law fairly and justly.

Carl J. Mazzone

Common Pleas - General
FTC - 1/6/2025

Carl has had the privilege of serving the public for 13 years as a trial attorney. He wants to use his experience, ideas, and passion for the law to bring a fresh perspective and new ideas for data driven practices, increased access, and greater transparency to the Court of Common Pleas.

Kira Krivosh

Common Pleas - General
UTE 12/31/2026

Magistrate Krivosh hears hundreds of cases per year, using her broad and deep legal experience to make sound decisions with a huge impact. Her innovative courtroom practices and policies improve access to justice for everyone.

Alison Nelson Floyd

Common Pleas - Juvenile
FTC - 1/2/2025

Judge Floyd has 24 years of experience at the Juvenile Court. Experience makes the difference for juvenile crime, mental health, child protection and parents rights and responsibilities, creating safer places and well-being for children.

Thank you Voters!
